Dear Royal Sir,

We were amused and pleased by the photos of your recent frolic in Las Vegas. What happens there rarely stays there unfortunately.

As you may know, Vivid is the leading adult movie studio in the world and we specialize in the "celebrity" genre...which leads us to you, as your celebrity is unmatched in the world today.

We would like to offer you the opportunity to truly become the coolest Prince of all time, by starring in a fun, sexy, big-budget adult film called "The Trouble with Harry."

It can be shot in the locale of your choice, and will bring together your exciting Royal world and our thrilling world of beautiful women! Of course "little Harry" will make an appearance too, but we assure you the sex will be well scripted, and the Crown Jewels will be not be "minimized" in any way.

We will pay you $10 million dollars for one single film; think of the good it would do in the hands of the Prince's Trust. Just a thought.

We look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,

Steven Hirsch
